Journey to Ancient Egypt

Key Knowledge and Skills

Egyptian Jewellery:

Everyone wore jewellery in ancient Egypt, from poor farmers to wealthy royals. For the wealthy, pieces were made from semi-precious stones, precious metals and glass beads. The poor substituted these with painted clay, stones, shells, animal teeth and bones.

Hieroglyphics is a writing system that uses pictures and symbols instead of letters and words.

Trinket boxes to keep precious jewellery in. These are usually designed using Ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics and colours. To make one successfully, we will have to design, plan and create our own trinket box.
